Last year's sunflower field 🌻
What will this year's field look like? 🍀

Happy Sunflower Field is held as part of my university research project,

"Flower and Sustainability." I hope this field becomes a place where many moments of happiness are shared: feeling happy when you see the sunflowers, happy when you chat with someone, and simply happy to spend time in the field.

I would also be very grateful if you could support my research by completing a short survey.

Please feel free to stop by and enjoy the sunflowers! 🌻 ✨
